

The Arizona Elk Society Elk Hunting Clinic

Saturday August 22, 2009.

FOP Lodge #2
12851 N. 19th Ave., north of Cactus road

Doors will open at 9am and close at 4pm.

This will be an all day clinic teaching the many aspects of becoming successful at hunting elk in Arizona.

We will have Speakers from all over the West including Steve Chappell, Arizona Elk Hunting Outfitter and many more.

Subjects include:

Early and Late season bull and cow rifle hunting tactics

Early and Late season bull and cow archery hunting tactics

Elk calling, How, when and where

Meat care, skinning and taxidermy preparation

Scoring your elk

Tree stand and blind setups, use of trail cameras

Tracking wounded game for recovery

Information from AZGFD Wildlife Managers (so bring your maps)

ATV rules and regulations from the U.S. Forest Service & AZGFD

All about using and buying optics

And more.

The entry price of the tickets will include lunch at noon.

In a separate room we will have a vendor area set up to showcase elk hunting products and gear that will be for sale from local vendors. Calls, DVDs, optics and hunting gear discussed in the clinic will be for sale.

Tickets are $20 adults, $10 youth 17 and under.

$10 adults and $5 youth will be credited towards a new AES membership if you join at the event.

Tickets are available by calling Kathi Nixon – 480-882-9477

www.arizonaelksociety.org