The Arizona Elk Society is 501 (c) 3, non-profit organization registered in the State of Arizona. Donations are deductible as a charitable contribution to the extent that they meet State and/or Federal laws regarding transactions between individuals or businesses and non-profit organizations. Generally, cash donations are fully deductible. Exchanges of monies for goods and/or services are deductible as a charitable contribution to the extent that they exceed the value of the goods and/or services you received in exchange for your donation. If you are unsure of what may or may not be considered a charitable deduction we urge you to contact a qualified financial accountant or a State or Federal employee with the knowledge and authority to provide you with specific information regarding the donation or purchase you have made or are considering.
